There is not much documentation, but you are welcome to do everything you can with all this. Note that all calculations here are done with Bigints. The game probably uses double floats. But I like the precision of the bigints. Open the Mac App Store to buy and download apps. Have you ever dreamed of hitting oil, building your own oil empire, and earning billions of dollars? Now you can. Welcome to Oil Tycoon, the game where you extract oil around the world, sell it and make your fortune! Your path to wealth begins in your backyard, where you first beat oil! From here and with your first pump, you start your extraction mission. Oil Tycoon offers fantastic, idle gameplay where you tap and build to slowly forge an oil empire like never before. After successfully extracting your first batch of oil, it is time to sell and update, which means that you go public. Here you can monitor prices and make sure you sell at the best time to make bank! Once you're richer than a gold mine, it's time to upgrade Now you can install new barrels, enter gas production or explore new areas and continue mining! There are thousands of upgrades and new ventures that you can get stuck in, provided you can take a break from mining. As they progress, you will unlock new places as you extract mine and your way around the world. Imagine building a factory in the depths of Siberia, installing underwater gas plants and setting a moon The possibilities for your empire are endless, and the only limit is your entrepreneurial talents. You're going to make billions with your oil because you now have everything an oil miner needs to do. Get out of there, get sellin', and become a real oil tycoon. 31.12.2020 Version 4.0.9 Are you ready for Christmas? We have prepared a surprise for you - unique New Year's equipment! Collect Christmas tree decorations and change them for new gear. Good luck! Ho Ho Ho! Some grammatical (English) problems, and some crashes here and there, overall a very great game. I remember this game years ago when it sold a very simple excerpt then. Only one place and very few upgrades (no visual). The developers have made some real progress to make the game a better version. I got stuck to play it for hours while I was still idle. I haven't yet seen the staff special offer and I'm not sure what will happen if I don't pay taxes, but it's a fun game. Definitely a future 5-star game. I originally had this at 4 stars with my only problem that I'm not able to turn off the vibration notification when I get a diamond or a box. I took 1 star because with all the changes they made with the last update, it wasn't fixed. I took another star (could have been 2) because if they made changes with the update, they don't say what the changes were. The biggest change I noticed was when you sell oil, prices have fallen. It used to be 80 dollars, today it's the maximum, today it's 60 dollars the maximum. All you need to do is put a small statement in the version update. Put it in a bulleted format so you can easily see what the updates are. Or do you pay for each character? I have noticed a few other changes, some are good, some are bad, and some make no difference. If you pretty much overtake the game, let people know. I could delete the game because of him. Edit: Now ads are nuptled, so another star is gone... next it's the game the game is fun and addictive there are a few things I would change, like using the real estate screen better use more click buttons to take things off the page to give you more space. Also, I would move the amount of oil and your cash aside, so it is not always in the way. Another thing would be to shift to your oil properties to make the easy to use one that allows you to click on it you can't just click on the button to make it again so you can go to the other without clicking in and out .. others then these errors IMO I would highly recommend and say that this is a great game the developer, Gismart, noted that the privacy practices of the app may include handling data as described below.
